

D 109

ERNEST TAYLOR PYLE

INDIANA

SEA3 US NAVY

WORLD WAR I

AUG 3 1900

APR 18 1945

PURPLE HEART

SELMAN

, at the time,
n-combatants,
to the battlefields
had begun.
tegrity."

BOB HOPE

First Honorary Veteran Of The United States
By Act of Congress

World War II—Korea—Vietnam—Beirut—Desert Storm

Congressional Gold Medal

PRESIDENTIAL MEDAL OF FREEDOM

Medal of Merit

"Thanks for the Memories."

"It don't m

JACK M. WOODCOCK JR.

Staff Sergeant

U. S. Air Force

620 Tactical Control Squadron

Bronze Star

VIC GETSINGER

Sergeant

5th Infantry Division, 1st Brigade

U.S. Army

Vietnam

MEDALS: Bronze Star, Army Commendation.

From your Friends and Colleagues at Residential California Realty

WEDY

nd Air Wing

PURPLE HEART

ommendation, rting British insula.

BILL MAULDIN

Technical Sergeant
U. S. Army
World War II

45th Infantry Division

From Privates to Generals a brief moment of laughter. His WWII
"Stars and Stripes" acclaimed cartoon characters. . .
"Willie and Joe"

"Willie and Joe"

WYLTON SAGELY

1st Colonel
Air Force
Korea—Vietnam

1st Air Force
Joint Service Commendation, Long Service Unit, American Campaign,
w/1 Star, World War II Victory,
w/1 Star, Longevity Service w/4
Air Force Reserve

Logistics Officer, ensured vehicle movement of cargo met the needs of combat and war plans.

C-119 Globemaster

West Point

Class of 1886

JOHN JOSEPH "BLACK JACK" PERSHING

General of the Armies of the United States
U. S. Army

Commander-in-Chief American Expeditionary Forces (WW I)
Military Governor of Moro Province, Philippines, 1909-1913
Chief of Staff, U. S. Army, 1921-1924

Indian Wars, 1886-1890; 1895-1896

Spanish-American War, 1898

Philippine-American War, 1899-1903

Russo-Japanese War, 1904-1905

Mexican Expedition, 1916-1917

World War I, 1917-1918

Victoriously led all battles. Only officer ever to be granted position of "General of the Armies of the United States" that is above the five-star grade.

75mm Gun

PAUL J. SCHILLINGER, SR.

Private
U. S. Army
World War II

Battle of the Bulge 16 Dec. 1944 - 28 Jan. 1945
Rhineland—Ardennes—Central Europe

Combat Infantryman Badge

MEDALS: Good Conduct, European-African-Middle Eastern Campaign w/3 Clusters,
World War II Victory

During the Battle of the Bulge, became lone survivor of a machine gun team guarding a pass and served as a courier.

ROBERT W. SCHILLINGER, SR.

Sergeant
U. S. Air Force
Vietnam

MEDALS-RIBBONS: Outstanding Unit Award,
National Defense Service, Longevity Service Award, Small Arms Expert Marksmanship, Philippine Presidential Unit Citation

Pavement Maintenance Specialist. Built, maintained, repaired, and rehabilitated aircraft runways and other surfaces in all types of weather and circumstances.

A. GLENN MILLER

Major
U.S. Army Air Force
Band Director
World War II
Bronze Star

"Next to a letter from home, the Glenn Miller Band was the greatest morale builder in the European Theater of War." Gen. Jimmy Doolittle

On land, sea, and air 16 million WW II servicemen revered his "In the Mood" and "Moonlight Serenade."

In loving remembrance from his Daughter, Grandchildren and Great-Grandchildren.

Luther flew as a gunner on many missions. With g your heroic defense
world. With love.

*Freedom is n

FRANK ANTHONY MARTIN

Boatswain Mate 1st Class
U.S. Navy
Pacific Theater, World War II
USS YP 277

Honora of Bah
OSS L

AT THIS SPOT
THE 77th INFANTRY DIVISION
• LOST A BUDDY •
ERNIE PYLE
18 APRIL 1945